The International Security Foundation (ISF) seeks to strengthen U. S. security by fostering collaboration and cooperation among governmental and private sector security professionals. The ISF achieves its mission by supporting the Domestic Security Alliance Council (DSAC) through engagement, education symposia and security information exchange. Private-sector support has played a major role in planning and executing DSAC events including the DSAC Annual Meeting, DSAC Senior Leadership Exchange, Domestic Security Graduate Academy and many networking opportunities. Funds raised through the Domestic Security Reception allow the ISF to meet ongoing security information needs and respond to new initiatives.
