TSF 2023 Annual Report

It was a banner year for TSF!

Read our hot-of-the-presses 2023 Annual Report, filled with photos, donors lists and more. We are proud to share the impact our generous corporate and individual donors and members have across the domestic and global public-private partnerships.

Thank you, donors and members! TSF's valued role as a trusted convener is driven and inspired by your trust in us. With your support, we can better support the vital work of the security profession.

ANNUAL REPORT

TSF Staff Updates

In January, Siobhan Clune was named TSF Associate Executive Director. This well-deserved promotion recognizes her fundraising success as the former TSF Director of Development. Siobhan will continue to oversee fundraising while taking on more of the daily operations, allowing Peggy O'Neill, TSF Executive Director, more time to work with TSF's Board on new strategic initiatives.

Julie Bennett, Events Manager for the TSF Dinner since 2013, was named Fundraising Coordinator in January. In her new TSF role, Julie works with Siobhan and all sponsors and donors for TSF-sponsored events from the TSF Dinner and DSAC Annual Meeting and TSF Reception to various DSAC and OSAC sponsored programs. She will continue her events-management role for TSF's annual events.

TSF DEI Initiative Updates

Security Industry Collaborates on DEI

The Security Foundation is leading cross-organizational efforts to unite DEI progress across the security profession.

Since 2022, The Security Foundation (TSF), formerly the International Security Foundation (ISF), has set organizational and industry goals for diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) efforts. In an industry where 85% of job candidates are men and 70% come from a government background, TSF works to consistently improve its own initiatives and foster cross-organizational collaboration on DEI initiatives in the security industry.

DEI Efforts Highlighted in Security Magazine

The March 2024 issue of Security Magazine featured TSF's collaboration with partners ASIS, DSAC, ISMA and OSAC to create a more diverse and inclusive security industry.

Meet our newest TSF Member: Josh Phillips

Our TSF individual membership ranks continue to grow with security leaders like Josh Phillips, Senior Director, Global Security & Resilience, Chipotle.

TSF Membership makes a huge difference. A single membership can fully fund an OSAC Country Chapter meeting or a DSAC Field Office Meeting. Plus, TSF members get a cool, new TSF Pin and/or TSF Challenge Coin, depending on membership levels.

BECOME A MEMBER

"I am proud to support TSF as I believe a stronger connection between the private and public security sectors is essential to our company and national and global security. The collaboration and cooperation fostered by DSAC and OSAC, through TSF's support, have been invaluable to my team as we seek to keep our company and people safe." - Josh Phillips

Check out the REVAMPED TSF WEBSITE!

We've refreshed our website for a more user-friendly experience. A few highlights just a click away: TSF member profiles, a DEI Resources section and easier navigation for Support and Grants.
